A cartoon illustration of a yellow giraffe with brown spots and ossicones, standing in a savanna. The giraffe is reaching up towards a tree branch with green leaves on the left. To the right is a tall palm tree. The background features a white sky with several blue-outlined clouds. One of the clouds in the upper right contains the word "alto" in black lowercase letters. In the foreground, there are small green bushes and a single orange flower with a yellow center.
